DUNLUCE CASTLE

FROM REGAL TO RUINED

Nearly 30,000 castles can be found scattered across the Emerald Isle. Many of these castles were built in medieval times, some as far back as the 12th century! Some are still beautiful and grand while others are crumbling ruins, such as Dunluce Castle in Northern Ireland. Over hundreds of years, Dunluce has gone from being the seat of rulers to empty walls, with stories of parts of the house falling into the sea. The Bible reminds us that things on this earth will fall and fade away, but those who trust in Jesus as their Savior have the promise of eternal life in heaven where nothing will ever go to ruin.

At Emerald Crossing VBS, they'll journey through Ireland's lush landscapes, exploring the powerful words of Psalm 23. They'll discover the life of the shepherd-king David and will learn how to cross from worry to peace, from fear to faith, and from uncertainty to a firm foundation in God's Word through a relationship with the Good Shepherd. Get your passport ready for Ireland and join the adventure!

Terrific Trivia Tidbits

Did you know there are over 30,000 castles in Ireland?

Interestingly, Dunluce Castle in Northern Ireland is believed to have been the inspiration for Cair Paravel in C.S. Lewis' series The Chronicles of Narnia.

Strum, Strum, Strum!

The harp is the national symbol of Ireland. There is even a bridge shaped like a harp called the Samuel Beckett Bridge.

Got Milk?

Ireland produces enough dairy products each year to feed 52 million people.

Watch Out!

A grown hedgehog has around 5,000 quills on its back.

Shamrock Ceremony

The Irish prime minister visits the United States each year around St. Patrick's Day and presents the president with a crystal bowl filled with shamrocks!

Afraid of Heights?

The Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most visited natural attractions. Their sheer vertical drops measure over 700 feet tall at the tallest point.

Party Time!

St. Patrick's Day is a public holiday in Ireland, meaning that schools and most businesses are closed in celebration of this special day. Festivities include parades, feasting with friends and family, and, for some, the watching of Irish sports.

Like Languages?

Irish and English are the two official languages of Ireland, though English is much more commonly spoken.

Smelly Signals

Sheep have special scent glands in front of their eyes and between their toes that release scents, allowing sheep to communicate with each other.

Travel Tip!

If you're traveling to Ireland, make sure to pack for all kinds of weather! Though Ireland has a temperate climate, it's common to have rain, then sunshine, then rain again within the same day or even the same hour.

St. Patrick!

St. Patrick is credited with bringing Christianity to Ireland, but did you know St. Patrick wasn't actually Irish? He came to Ireland under force, after having been kidnapped at the age of 16.

Yum?

One of the badger's favorite meals is worms. In fact, they are capable of eating several hundred worms a day.

Fashion Forward

Celtic people, who arrived in Ireland centuries before Christ's birth, were known for their love of colorful clothes which they dyed bright colors. It's also believed they were some of the first people in Europe to wear pants instead of tunics!
