

Agape and Phileo

the swans remind us that God loves us and provides the way to be part of his family—through Jesus, his Son.

