Name: Ehani

Country: Nepal

Challenge: Generational Poverty

About: Ehani has two things that she wants more than anything: she wants food to eat every day and she wants to go to school. Ehani's mother is unable to find steady work because she lacks education for a well-paying job. Because she is only working for a few months each year, she can't afford to send Ehani to school. Ehani's mother knows her daughters need an education if they ever hope to break the cycle of poverty.

Prayer Requests: Pray for children like Ehani who long for a different future but don't see a way to reach their goals on their own.

Pray for the churches that are offering training for people like Ehani's mother so they can provide a better future for their children.
