

My god wants me to
be rich and healthy.
He's kind of like a genie
granting me my wishes.

I don't think there is a God.

Jesus is God's Son,
but not God himself.

Whatever you believe
God is like is okay.
We can all just decide
for ourselves.

God is mean, like
a cosmic cop.

My god is up in heaven,
but he doesn't bother
himself with my day-
to-day life, so I can live however I want.

God doesn't love me
because I've done
something bad.

God's only going to let me into heaven if I'm a good person.
