

Destination: Old Testament Locations

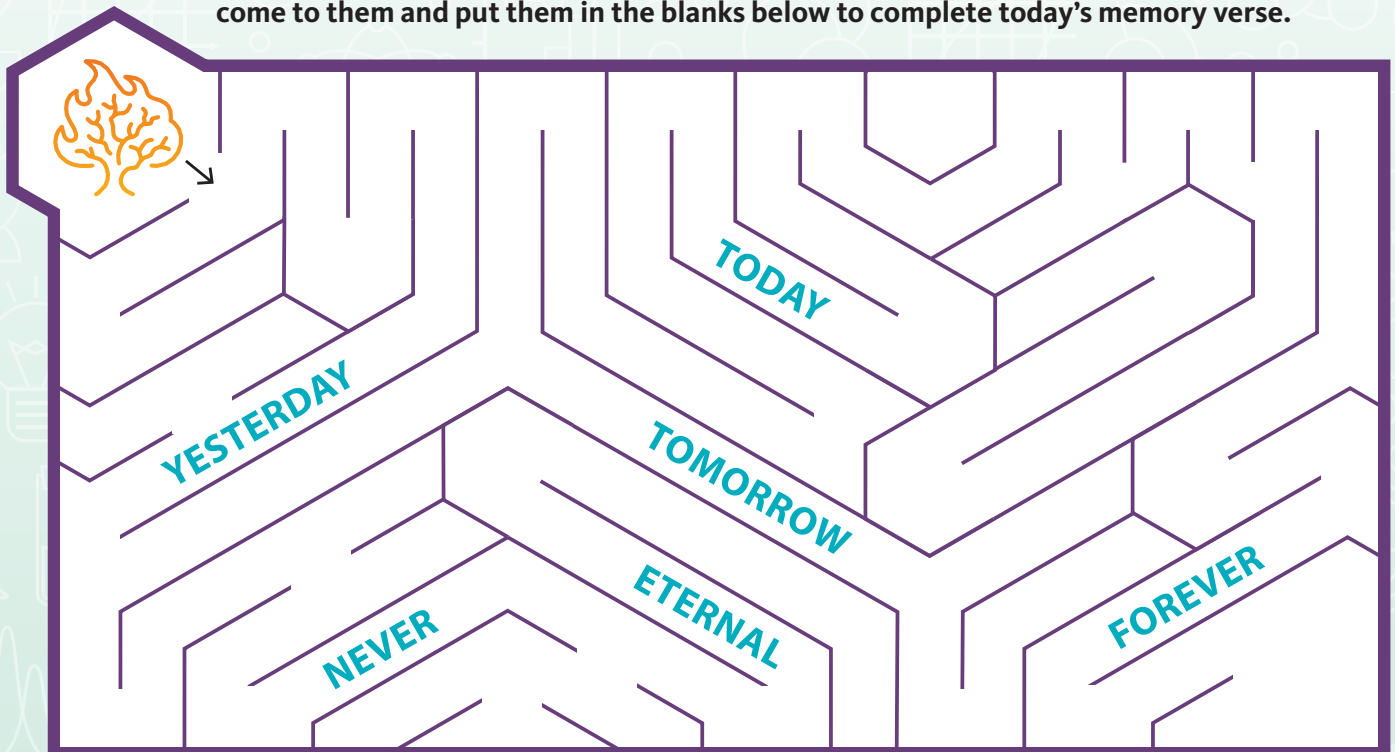

Welcome back, Time Travelers! We hope you had an awesome time at Time Lab today, traveling to Old Testament locations searching for Son of God sightings. Our animal pal, Lottie the Lamb, reminds us of Jesus, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world—just as God promised in the Old Testament.

In our first Old Testament Son of God sighting, we met Abraham (Genesis 18), who was sitting by a tree when the Lord appeared to him. The Son of God promised Abraham that when he returned to visit a year later, Abraham and his wife Sarah would have a son. It happened just as the Lord had said! Next, we fast-forwarded to a man named Moses. The Angel of the Lord (the Son of God) appeared to Moses in the form of a burning bush and gave him a big job to do (Exodus 3). In both cases, things worked out just the way God said they would because he is a promise keeper!

Jesus always has been, always will be a promise keeper—from Old Testament times to forever!

Complete the maze, picking up the words as you go. Place the words in order as you come to them and put them in the blanks below to complete today's memory verse.

Jesus Christ is the same _____ and _____ _____ and _____. Hebrews 13:8

High Voltage Verse

Today's Verse

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today
and forever.

Hebrews 13:8

Challenge: Put a long line on the floor using either masking tape, rope, string, or yarn. Walk along the line as you say your verse. Think about Jesus being around forever and never changing.

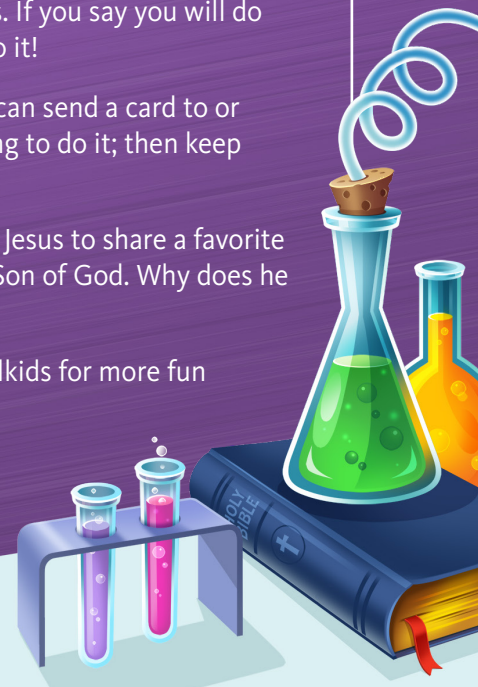

Tomorrow's Verse:

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

Ask Yourself: With God's help, do I try to keep my promises?

- Look up Exodus 3 and read the rest of the Burning Bush account. What do you find interesting about the Son of God here?
- Talk to God and ask him to help you be a person who keeps your promises. If you say you will do something, you should do it!
- Decide on someone you can send a card to or visit. Tell her you are going to do it; then keep your promise and do so!
- Ask an adult who follows Jesus to share a favorite Bible account about the Son of God. Why does he like that one?
- Check answersvbs.com/tlkids for more fun information!

Day 5-PRIMARY

Destination: Celebration

Hello, Travelers! We hope you had an incredible time at Time Lab this week! Today, our animal pal, King the Lion, reminds us of Jesus the Lion of Judah, the King of kings. As we learned yesterday, Jesus has been busy preparing a place—a new heaven and a new earth (2 Peter 3:13). Heaven is a real place, where every child of God gets to live forever with Jesus. The Apostle Paul, in 1 Corinthians 2:9, tells us that we cannot begin to imagine the amazing place Jesus is preparing. The Bible tells us many things about the new heaven and new new earth. No sin and no sickness will be there, and the streets will be made of gold while the gates will be made of pearls. In the future, as we explore the new earth, enjoy its beauty, and have fun playing, we will be happy knowing that Jesus is our Lord and friend even as he sits on the throne.

Jesus is the King of kings. He will rule over everyone and everything forever. While we are still here on this present earth, it's important to take Jesus seriously, realize he is the King of kings and Lord of lords, and tell others about him!

Jesus always has been, always will be in charge, including when he reigns as King of kings in the new heaven and new earth.

Read Revelation 21–22. Draw lines to match what heaven has and what heaven does not have.

Heaven Has

Heaven Does not Have

Death

A Throne

Sadness

Sin

Pearly Gates

Sickness

Jesus as our friend

Food

High Voltage Verse

Today's Verse

At the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:10-11

Challenge: Get a timer. See how long it takes you to say your verse without making any mistakes. Now try a lightning speed round. What's the absolute fastest you can say it without looking at it and without making a mistake?

Ask YOURSELF: What do I want to do as a result of this week? (Ask God, by his grace, to help you!)

- Tell someone about the new heaven and new earth. What sounds exciting about it?
- Read 2 Corinthians 5:10. Someday, you'll have to explain to God every choice you made, good and bad, while you lived here on earth. How should that affect the choices you make? Be sure to read the Bible every day so you are learning God's ways.
- Talk to God about whether or not you're sure you are his child. If you are, praise and thank him for the exciting future you have! If you aren't, talk to him or a trusted Christian about that.
- Discuss with a Christian adult what kinds of things you can do that will last for eternity.
- Check answersvbs.com/tlkids for more fun information!

