Student Guide

Day 1–Toddler

Destination: Creation

Hello, Time Travelers! We hope you had a blast today at Time Lab where you started exploring the truth about Jesus from eternity past to eternity future. You learned that Jesus always has been and always will be. There is one God but three separate persons. In the beginning of time, God the Father, God the Son (Jesus), and God the Holy Spirit created all kinds of amazing flying animals, swimming animals, and land animals—and more! God knows every little detail about every bug and leaf and person. He cares about the big stuff like stars and planets and the small stuff like our animal pal, Flutter the Sparrow. He created you, loves you, and cares for you very much. He will never leave you. He is always with you!

Jesus is ETERNAL—he always has been, always will be with us!

Color the picture of Flutter the Sparrow to remind you that God cares for you!

God cares
for me!

High Voltage Verse

Today's Verse

All things were created through him
and for him.

Colossians 1:16

Challenge: Find something that is a circle shape, like a hula hoop, a pool ring, or a jewelry ring. Circles have no beginning and no ending, like the Son of God. As you say today's verse, toss your circle up and try to catch it. Do this over and over and see how many times you can toss it without dropping it. Don't forget to say your verse as you toss your circle!

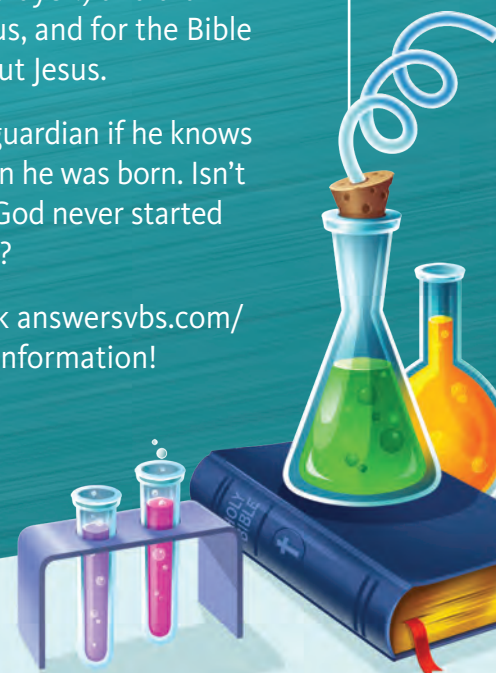

Tomorrow's Verse:

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday
and today and forever. Hebrews 13:8

Ask Yourself: Do I know
someone who needs to hear about this wonderful Creator?

- Go on a treasure hunt outside to see how many plants and animals you can find. Jesus, the Son of God, created all of them!
- Talk to God (that's prayer!) and thank him for his Son, Jesus, and for the Bible that teaches us about Jesus.
- Ask your parent or guardian if he knows anything about when he was born. Isn't it amazing to think God never started but always has been?
- With an adult, check answersvbs.com/tlkids for more fun information!

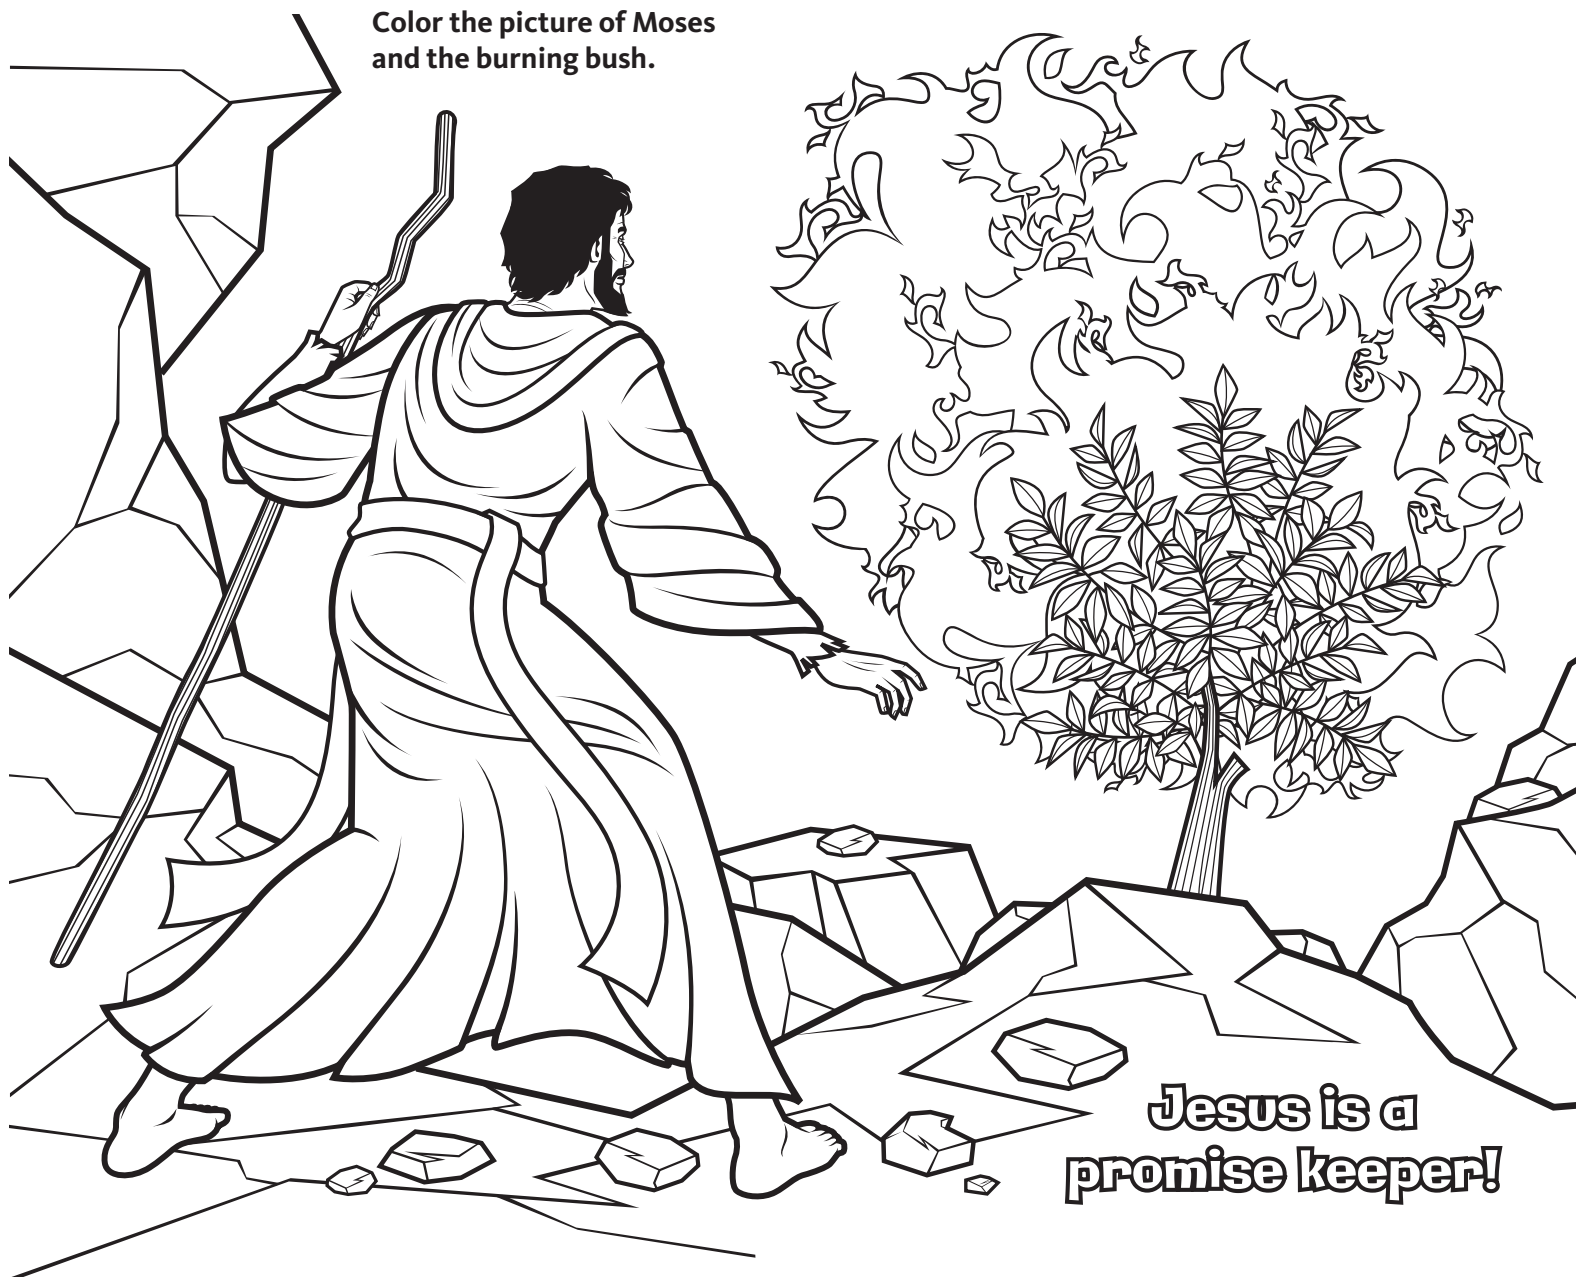

Destination: Old Testament Locations

Welcome back, Time Travelers! We hope you had an awesome time at Time Lab today, traveling to Old Testament times. Our animal pal, Lottie the Lamb, reminds us of the shepherd Moses, who had a one-of-a-kind experience. The Angel of the Lord (Jesus) appeared to Moses as a bush that was on fire but didn't burn up (Exodus 3). The Son of God (Jesus) appeared to Moses to give him a big job: freeing the Hebrew people from Pharaoh. God promised Moses that he would be with Moses and that Pharaoh would let the people go. It happened just the way God said it would because he is a promise keeper. God always, always, always keeps his promises!

Jesus always has been, always will be a promise keeper—from Old Testament times to forever!

Today's Verse

Jesus Christ is the same
yesterday and today
and forever.

Hebrews 13:8

Challenge: Ask an adult to put down a long line on the floor using either masking tape, string, or yarn. Walk along the line as you say your verse. Think about Jesus being around forever and never changing.

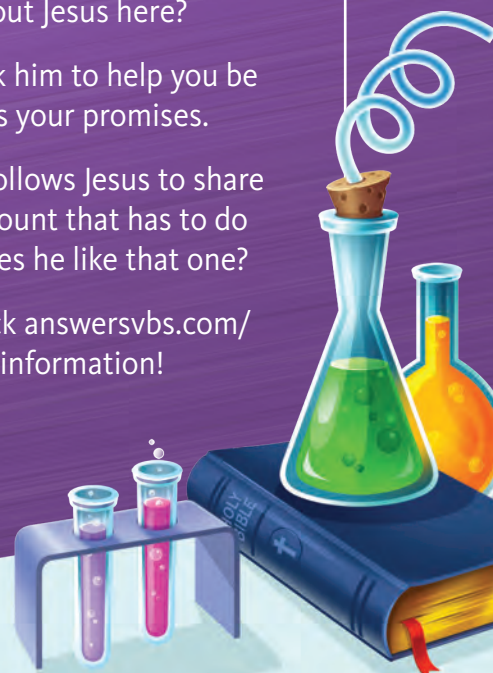

Tomorrow's Verse:

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

Ask YOURSELF: With God's help, do I try to keep my promises?

- Ask an adult to read or tell you the account from Exodus 3. What do you find interesting about Jesus here?
- Talk to God and ask him to help you be a person who keeps your promises.
- Ask an adult who follows Jesus to share a favorite Bible account that has to do with Jesus. Why does he like that one?
- With an adult, check answersvbs.com/tlkids for more fun information!

Day 3-Toddler

Destination: Visitation

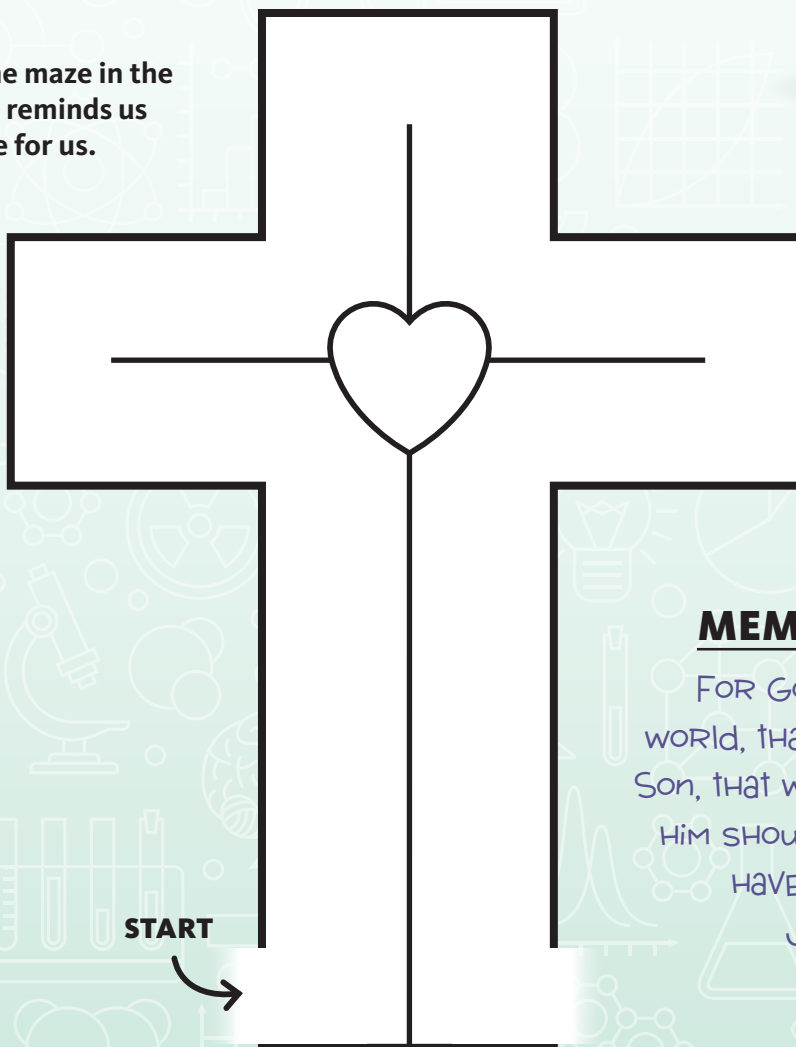

Hello, Time Travelers! Today our animal pal, Sergeant the St. Bernard, reminded us that as he seeks and saves the lost, Jesus seeks and saves those who are spiritually lost. God sent his Son, Jesus, to earth as a tiny baby to save us, just as he promised.

In the beginning, Adam and Eve sinned (disobeyed God's command). Since that time, every person has been born a sinner. We all disobey God's commands. The punishment for sin is death, and when we die, we are separated from God in a terrible place. The good news is that God sent his Son because he loves the world and wants to save us from our sin. In his great love, perfect Jesus chose to take the punishment for our sin as he died on the cross. He rose from the dead on the third day! Through Jesus, God made a way for us to have eternal life with him in heaven. When we repent of our sin (say we are sorry and turn from it) and believe in Jesus, we can receive the gift of eternal life with God forever.

Jesus always has been, always will be ready to love and forgive those who truly want to become his children!

Complete the maze in the cross, which reminds us of Jesus' love for us.

MEMORY VERSE

WORLD, THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY

Tomorrow's Verse:

I go to prepare a place for you. John 14:2

ASK YOURSELF:
Am I part of God's family?

- Ask an adult to read Matthew 8:23–27 and Matthew 9:27–31. Aren't Jesus' miracles amazing?
- Jesus was always loving and caring for people and showing kindness. Who is somebody you can show kindness to today? Think of someone and something kind you can do. Then do it!
- Talk to an adult about how he came to follow Jesus.

Day 4-Toddler

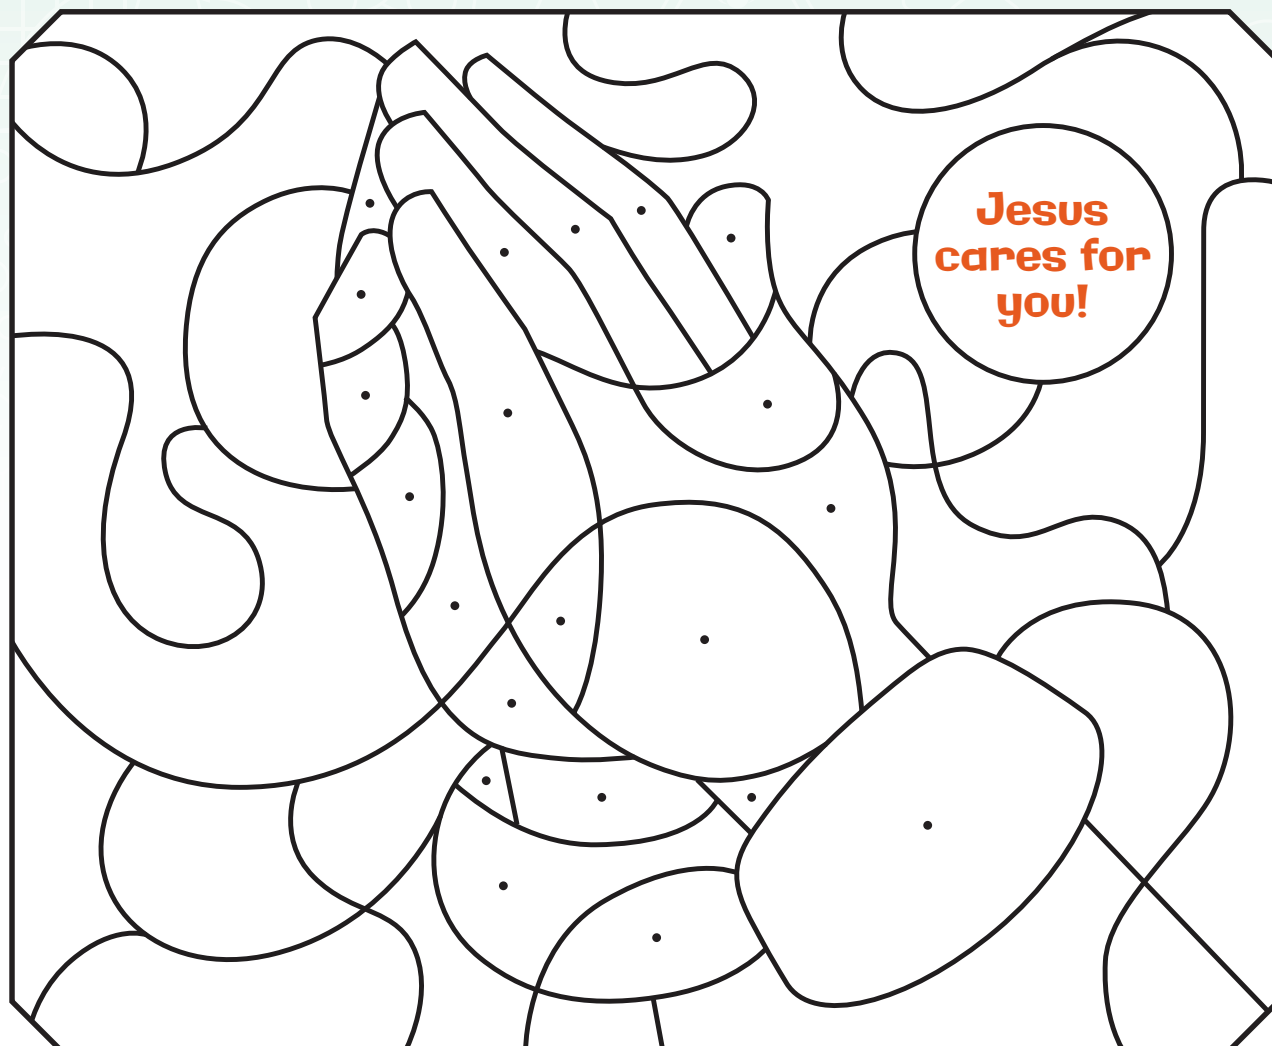

Destination: Preparation

Hi again, Travelers! We left off yesterday with Jesus coming back to life. He went back to heaven! Our animal pal, Bucky the Beaver, gives us a clue about what Jesus has been doing since he left earth and returned to heaven. Bucky is preparing his home, and Jesus is preparing a place in heaven. The Bible tells us Jesus is in heaven getting a place ready for all those who are his children (John 14:2-3). We don't know exactly what it's going to look like, but we know it's going to be the most amazing, wonderful place ever. Jesus is praying for us, too! When you pray to Jesus, he shares your prayer with God the Father (Romans 8:34). Jesus is always caring for his children and praying for them!

Jesus always has been, always will be caring for his children—even now from heaven.

Color in all the pieces with a dot to reveal the picture.
Hint: Jesus is doing this for us in heaven.

Today's Verse

I go to prepare a
place for you.

John 14:2

Challenge: Pretend to build a “mansion” with many rooms as you say
the verse.

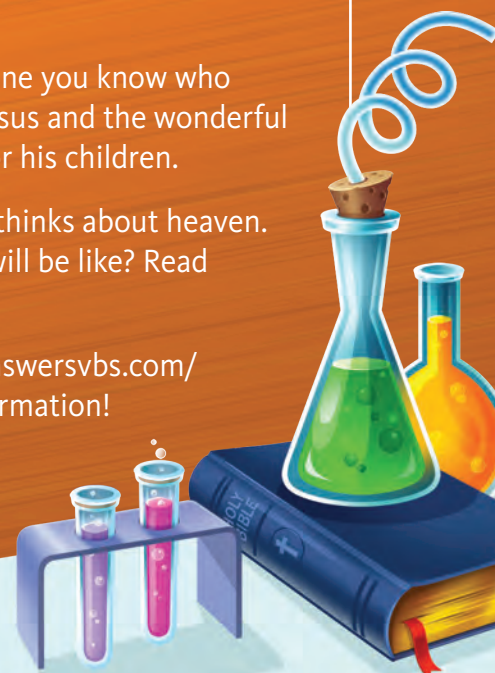

Tomorrow's Verse:

At the name of Jesus every knee
should bow. Philippians 2:10

Ask YOURSELF: Does
heaven sound exciting to live in someday?

- Ask someone to make a special place for you, such as a “fort” made with a sheet over a table. Take paper and crayons into your special place and draw what you imagine the place looks like that Jesus is preparing for his children. Show it to someone and tell him about it.
- Talk to God about anyone you know who may not know about Jesus and the wonderful place he is preparing for his children.
- Ask an adult if he ever thinks about heaven. What does he think it will be like? Read Revelation 21 together.

Day 5-Toddler

Destination: Celebration

Hello, Travelers! We hope you had an incredible time at Time Lab this week.

Today, our animal pal, King the Lion, reminds us of Jesus, the Lion of Judah, the King of kings! Jesus has been busy preparing a place for us—a new heaven and a new earth. We cannot begin to imagine the amazing place Jesus is preparing for his children (1 Corinthians 2:9). The Bible tells us many things about the new heaven and new earth. No sin and no sickness will be there. The streets will be made of gold while the gates will be made of pearls. In the future, as we explore the new earth, enjoy its beauty, and have fun playing there, we will be happy knowing that Jesus will always be there as King of kings.

Jesus always has been, always will be in charge, including when he reigns as King of kings in the new heaven and new earth.

Color the picture of King the Lion, who reminds us of Jesus, the Lion of Judah, the King of kings!

King the Lion is king of the jungle, but Jesus is King of all!

every knee should bow.

Philippians 2:10

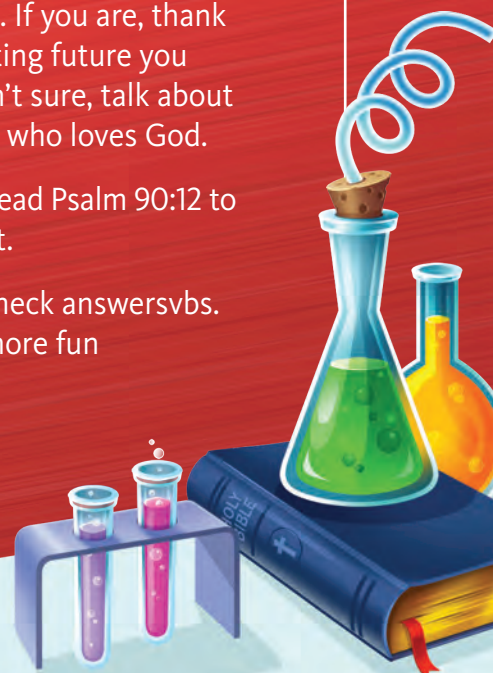

Challenge: Bow as
you say this verse.

Ask YOURSELF: What
words would I use to describe Jesus? What did Jesus teach me this week
through the Bible?

- Tell someone something you learned about the new heaven and new earth. What sounds exciting about it?
- Talk to God about whether or not you are his child. If you are, thank him for the exciting future you have! If you aren't sure, talk about it with someone who loves God.
- Ask an adult to read Psalm 90:12 to you. Talk about it.

king of all! He will reign forever as
the King of kings in the new heaven and
new earth!

Bucky is busy building his place, while Jesus is busy building his place for all his children. Are you a child of God?
