BIG NEWS! Jesus Is Creator

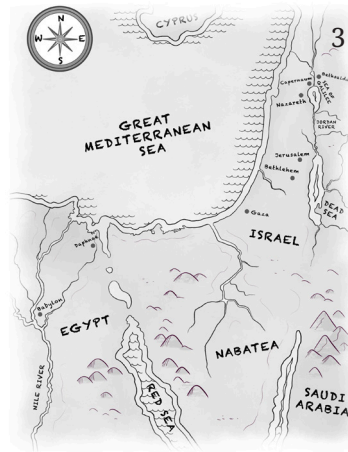

Sources confirm that Jesus DID NOT begin as a baby. In fact, he DID NOT begin at all! He has existed forever and is, indeed, the Creator of all things. Whether it be a beautiful sunset, a waterfall in the mountains, a field of flowers, a barnyard of animals, or a birth of a baby, Jesus is the Creator of it all and should be marveled at.

Breaking News! BETHLEHEM ON THE MAP

The small town of Bethlehem, located five miles outside of Jerusalem, is the expected place of the birth of Jesus. This event will certainly put this poor, tiny town on the map.

The Long Wait

In other news, eyewitnesses report that people are waiting for the Creator to actually make an appearance on the earth he created. They are expecting Jesus to arrive as a king and have waited hundreds of years for his arrival, which has been predicted in the Bible.

A Celestial Phenomenon

An amazing appearance in the heavenlies will play a part in the wise men finding the baby King. It has been reported that a supernatural star will appear and guide them to the place where Jesus is residing. It will be an extraordinary star like no other star—indeed, a star of wonder.
